

The A. F. of L. Weekly News Service gives news accounts and editorial commentaries of matters of national interest connected with the labor movement, including labor news, labor legislation, and labor relations. It is published weekly except on Sundays and public holidays.

AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR

WEEKLY NEWS SERVICE

Published for the members of the A. F. of L. by the American Federation of Labor, 1125, 1126, and 1127, Broadway, New York 100, N. Y.

WHOLE NO. 2940

WILLIAM GREEN, President

WASHINGTON, D. C., TUESDAY, MAY 16, 1950

GEORGE MEANY, Secretary-Treasurer

VOL. 40, NO. 29

Byers Host to German Unions

UNION LAUNDRY SERVICE SAVES JOBS

AFL Proposes Asia Defense Pact; Food to India; Arms to Indo-China

Philadelphia.—President Joseph P. Byers of the AFL Laundry Workers International Union explains how a shift to laundries by members of the union in London has helped to save jobs in that city. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies.

Philadelphia.—President Joseph P. Byers of the AFL Laundry Workers International Union explains how a shift to laundries by members of the union in London has helped to save jobs in that city. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies.

GIANT OVERALLS DISPLAYED AT SHOW

Philadelphia.—The U. S. largest overall, accurately built to scale by union craftsmen, traveled by special trailer from Kansas City, Mo., to Philadelphia for the AFL Union Industries Show.

Gompers Photo at Show

Philadelphia.—President Joseph P. Byers of the AFL Laundry Workers International Union explains how a shift to laundries by members of the union in London has helped to save jobs in that city. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies.

Comptroller Photo at Show

Philadelphia.—President Joseph P. Byers of the AFL Laundry Workers International Union explains how a shift to laundries by members of the union in London has helped to save jobs in that city. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies.

Committees Named On CIO Unity, To Study Pensions

Miss Postmark

Philadelphia.—The AFL Executive Committee has named two committees to study the CIO's proposal for a permanent and secure basis for the CIO's pension plan.

Philadelphia.—The AFL Executive Committee has named two committees to study the CIO's proposal for a permanent and secure basis for the CIO's pension plan.

AFL Pushes Grass Roots Drive To Restore Postal Service

Washington.—Message to members of the National Postal Union from the American Federation of Labor, urging them to support the drive to restore the postal service.

Theater Draws Show Visitors

Philadelphia.—The AFL Union Industries Show, held at the Franklin Institute, drew a large number of visitors from the labor community.

Philadelphia.—The AFL Executive Committee has named two committees to study the CIO's proposal for a permanent and secure basis for the CIO's pension plan.

Philadelphia.—President Joseph P. Byers of the AFL Laundry Workers International Union explains how a shift to laundries by members of the union in London has helped to save jobs in that city. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies.

Philadelphia.—President Joseph P. Byers of the AFL Laundry Workers International Union explains how a shift to laundries by members of the union in London has helped to save jobs in that city. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies.

Philadelphia.—President Joseph P. Byers of the AFL Laundry Workers International Union explains how a shift to laundries by members of the union in London has helped to save jobs in that city. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies.

Philadelphia.—President Joseph P. Byers of the AFL Laundry Workers International Union explains how a shift to laundries by members of the union in London has helped to save jobs in that city. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies.

Philadelphia.—President Joseph P. Byers of the AFL Laundry Workers International Union explains how a shift to laundries by members of the union in London has helped to save jobs in that city. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies.

Deeper Cuts Asked In Excess Taxes

Philadelphia.—The AFL Executive Committee has named two committees to study the CIO's proposal for a permanent and secure basis for the CIO's pension plan.

Philadelphia.—The AFL Executive Committee has named two committees to study the CIO's proposal for a permanent and secure basis for the CIO's pension plan.

Philadelphia.—President Joseph P. Byers of the AFL Laundry Workers International Union explains how a shift to laundries by members of the union in London has helped to save jobs in that city. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies.

Philadelphia.—President Joseph P. Byers of the AFL Laundry Workers International Union explains how a shift to laundries by members of the union in London has helped to save jobs in that city. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies.

Philadelphia.—President Joseph P. Byers of the AFL Laundry Workers International Union explains how a shift to laundries by members of the union in London has helped to save jobs in that city. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies.

Philadelphia.—President Joseph P. Byers of the AFL Laundry Workers International Union explains how a shift to laundries by members of the union in London has helped to save jobs in that city. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies.

Philadelphia.—President Joseph P. Byers of the AFL Laundry Workers International Union explains how a shift to laundries by members of the union in London has helped to save jobs in that city. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies.

AFL Deplores Postal Backlog

Philadelphia.—The AFL Executive Committee has named two committees to study the CIO's proposal for a permanent and secure basis for the CIO's pension plan.

Philadelphia.—The AFL Executive Committee has named two committees to study the CIO's proposal for a permanent and secure basis for the CIO's pension plan.

Philadelphia.—President Joseph P. Byers of the AFL Laundry Workers International Union explains how a shift to laundries by members of the union in London has helped to save jobs in that city. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies.

Philadelphia.—President Joseph P. Byers of the AFL Laundry Workers International Union explains how a shift to laundries by members of the union in London has helped to save jobs in that city. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies.

Philadelphia.—President Joseph P. Byers of the AFL Laundry Workers International Union explains how a shift to laundries by members of the union in London has helped to save jobs in that city. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies.

Philadelphia.—President Joseph P. Byers of the AFL Laundry Workers International Union explains how a shift to laundries by members of the union in London has helped to save jobs in that city. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies.

Philadelphia.—President Joseph P. Byers of the AFL Laundry Workers International Union explains how a shift to laundries by members of the union in London has helped to save jobs in that city. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies. The shift was made possible by the fact that the union had a large stockpile of laundry equipment and supplies.

Rutgers Institute To Study Gompers

Philadelphia.—The AFL Executive Committee has named two committees to study the CIO's proposal for a permanent and secure basis for the CIO's pension plan.

Philadelphia.—The AFL Executive Committee has named two committees to study the CIO's proposal for a permanent and secure basis for the CIO's pension plan.

LAUDS U. S. LABOR

Philadelphia.—The AFL Executive Committee has named two committees to study the CIO's proposal for a permanent and secure basis for the CIO's pension plan.

LAUDS U. S. LABOR

Philadelphia.—The AFL Executive Committee has named two committees to study the CIO's proposal for a permanent and secure basis for the CIO's pension plan.

LAUDS U. S. LABOR

Philadelphia.—The AFL Executive Committee has named two committees to study the CIO's proposal for a permanent and secure basis for the CIO's pension plan.

LAUDS U. S. LABOR

Philadelphia.—The AFL Executive Committee has named two committees to study the CIO's proposal for a permanent and secure basis for the CIO's pension plan.

LAUDS U. S. LABOR

Philadelphia.—The AFL Executive Committee has named two committees to study the CIO's proposal for a permanent and secure basis for the CIO's pension plan.

LAUDS U. S. LABOR

Philadelphia.—The AFL Executive Committee has named two committees to study the CIO's proposal for a permanent and secure basis for the CIO's pension plan.

LAUDS U. S. LABOR

Philadelphia.—The AFL Executive Committee has named two committees to study the CIO's proposal for a permanent and secure basis for the CIO's pension plan.

1